FROM THE PRINCIPAL

"Hanover has a recipe for success. We have wonderful parents who are actively involved in the education of their children, children that come through the doors every day ready to learn, and a fabulous faculty. We invite you to be an important ingredient in our recipe for success."

HANOVER IN THE COMMUNITY

- We host a Hats on for Cancer donation, which raises awareness and connects us with our Community.
- Our Cops-N-Kids book drive collects books for children in the community.
- Our Giving Tree gift donations for Northampton County Youth, increases awareness and establishes a positive, growing connection.
- Hanover families also collect pajamas, books, and monetary donations for the Sixth Street Shelter, New Bethany Ministries, and Turning Point.
- Our annual Spring Festival is open to all community members, and is an enjoyable evening creating lasting family memories!

WHAT PARENTS ARE SAYING

"Our kids LOVE Hanover Elementary and it is an amazing school. The teachers are engaging and always available."

CONNECTING FAMILIES & SCHOOLS

- The PTA connects parents. The many events that happen at Hanover are the result of the outpouring family involvement.
- Our Mystery Readers Series hosts parents and visitors, to come and share a story with our students.
- Mother's Day Tea and Donuts for Dads are two of the many traditions Hanover has throughout the year.
- Parents can volunteer as a Room Parent or Classroom Helper when available.
- Our Annual BASD Education Week offers opportunities to stay connected and observe the amazing learning at Hanover. Special Person's Day is a day filled with love, laughter of learning!
