INDECENT EXPOSURE BY MALE

On January 8, 2019, at approximately 7:45 am, two female Northeast Middle school students were in the 500 block of E. Locust Street. A male approached them and exposed himself to the girls. The male fled on Woodruff Street. The male is described as a W/M, medium build, late 30s to early 40s, wearing a gray hoodie, black beanie and gray pants.

At approximately 8:00 am a female student was in the 500 block of Turner Street where she observed a black car (unknown type sedan) with male standing next to it. The male exposed himself to the girl and got into the car and drove away. The male fit the above description except he did not have a hat on and his hair was dirty blondish hair.

If you have any information on these incidents, please contact the Bethlehem Police Department at 610-865-7187 and ask for City Detectives. If you are parent in this area and you see anything suspicious, please contact us immediately.

Thank You.
